

Southwestern Washington Synod OFFICE OF MINISTRY REVIEW FORMS

Pastor Review Aims

1. To provide ministry assessment; set and measure short- and long-term goals, honor accountability, provide feedback and counsel steps to move forward.
2. To provide a scheduled (EVERY TWO YEARS) positive review opportunity.
3. To provide a respectful, well managed review opportunity.
4. Facilitate growth toward a more effective ministry for the pastor and the congregation:
 - to affirm areas of effectiveness and success in ministry.
 - to affirm and encourage growth in personal, professional, and congregational relationships and ministries.
 - to identify areas of concern and/or tension [where nurture and growth are needed].
 - to plan for a realistic amount of time and assistance for change to occur.
5. Pastoral Reviews are NOT to be used to solve conflicts or air controversy. If significant issues exist, they need to be addressed separately and in person with the pastor.

Pastoral Review Team

1. It is recommended the congregation establish a Pastor/Congregation Relations Team and that pastor and congregation reviews are this Team's responsibility.
 - a. This Team is ongoing and accountable to the Church Council.
 - b. This Team consists of 3 - 5 members.
 - c. This team's primary concern should be the relationship between the pastor's ministry and the congregation's mission.
 - d. This Team shares results of Pastor's review with Church Council & Pastor only.
 - e. Term is 2-3 years, elected and/or appointed to position with overlap.
 - f. The Chair of this Team is a full member of the Church Council.

Pastoral Review Team Cautions

1. All participants and congregational respondents are accountable for what they say. Respondents are required to sign their names to promote honesty, integrity, and accountability consistent with our theology and understanding of church. Identity is important for potential follow-up where needed. Anonymous reviews will be discarded.
2. The person being reviewed will receive a full summarized report, but not the original response forms.

Review Steps

The pastor completes a written "self-evaluation" and submits it to the committee 10 days prior to scheduled review.

Report includes:

A review of areas of responsibility as outlined in the written job description.

A review of ministry successes.

A review of growth areas, concerns encountered in previous year's ministry.

A statement of goals and vision for ministry for the coming year.

A list of questions on which the pastor would welcome feedback from the committee and/or congregation.

1. Those in congregational leadership will complete the congregational review form.
2. The Review Team solicits responses from as many persons within the congregation as is possible or feasible.
3. Review Team holds meeting(s) to review responses, ask further questions, respond to pastor's self-assessment and congregational input, and to prepare feedback/summary report.
4. Review Team schedules a meeting with the Pastor and Council to share information based on summary report.
5. Summary Report: Review Team provides written report/summary, saved in a confidential file, with copies given to pastor, Church Council and can be sent to the Synod Office (to be placed in pastor's synodical file).

A general summary of the congregational questionnaire is to be made available to the Congregation.

Arrangements should be put in place for the handling of possible grievances.
